EXCHANGE DULL AT LOST ACTION

General Inactivity and Quietness Followed Rebound in Wall Street Market Today.

New York, Dec. 3.—On a rebound a stock market became dull with variable tendencies in different groups. Some war shares rose and there was improvement in automobile, oil and metal issues.

Sugar issues were again prominent. Cuban-American rising 7 to 160 and South Porto Rico Sugar 5 to 140. Rails were little more than passive. Bonds were irregular.

New York, Dec. 3.—Fractional declines were more or less general at the opening of today's stock market. Specialties, metal shares and rails all showing a lower trend.

The most conspicuous feature was United States Steel at 84 1/4 to 85. Southern Pacific also weakened on large scales, with a moderate setback in Union Pacific, Erie and Pennsylvania.

Among the high priced specialties, General Motors lost 3 to 460. Most early losses more than recovered.

PRIEST AT WINONA DECLARED INSANE

Winona, Minn., Dec. 3.—Rev. Father L. M. Leischer was this morning sentenced to the hospital for the insane at St. Peter, by Judge Granger in district court for his assault on Bishop P. R. Heffron of the diocese of Winona on Aug. 27 last. The jury's verdict acquitted Father Leischer of the charge on the ground that he was insane and declared that he had homicidal tendencies.

AURORA ELEVEN IS IN GOTHAM FOR GAME

WHEAT CLIMBS AS ACTIVITY COMES

Reports of Large Sales to Foreigners and Higher Quotations at Liverpool Help.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Broad activity and much higher prices in the wheat market today resulted from reports of large sales to foreigners and from higher quotations at Liverpool. After opening 1/2 to 1 1/4 higher, with December at 1.70 1/2 to 1.11 and May at 1.12 1/2 to 1.13 1/2, the market here reacted, then rose to more than two cents above yesterday's finish.

Further gains in wheat ensued but later the market underwent setbacks on realizing but longs. The close was 1 1/2 to 1 1/4, not higher, with December at 1.11 1/2 and May at 1.12 1/4.

Corn hardened with wheat. Prospects of increased crop movement led to profit taking at times. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/2 off to 1/2 up, were followed by a decided sag but then by a new upturn.

Corn closed 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 net decline. Oats reflected the action of corn. Packers selling minimized an advance in provisions.

WEATHER OBSERVATIONS.

The energetic northwestern storm remains over western Washington and is causing rain as far southward as northern California, with higher temperatures in the northern Rocky mountain sections. Warmer weather in the upper Mississippi valley has resulted from a moderate low which is over Iowa. Light showers or snow flurries have occurred in the southern portion of the lake region and in the middle Atlantic states and New England. The pressure is highest on the Gulf coast. Fair weather is indicated for this vicinity tonight and Saturday, with warmer Saturday.

The Day in Davenport

Naming of New City Officials Put Off

—Appointments of city officials and the change of the ordinance affecting the board of public works, scheduled for the regular meeting of the council Wednesday night in accordance with the law, were deferred until Dec. 15 because of the illness of Alderman Harbeck. The first intimation of the postponement came in the motion of Alderman Nebergall to defer action on the recommendation of the board of health for the present on account of the illness of the alderman. Four officials had been recommended by the board of health. These are: Health inspector, Otto Meinert; Meat and dairy inspector, Dr. Alfred Wright and food inspector, George Wilkens. At the conclusion of the regular business of the council Mayor Alfred C. Mueller asked the council whether or not it wished to take up the appointments at this time and it was the unanimous agreement of the aldermen to withhold the appointments until the indisposed councilman is able to resume his seat.

Theophilus Will Make Example of Order Violation—Is the woman who received a divorce from Henry Loof a week ago and who was married to Walter Applass, Moline, 48 hours later, guilty of the crime of bigamy or merely of contempt of court? As the situation now stands, no matter which way she turns she has violated the laws. If she admits the decree of divorce is valid, she is guilty of contempt of court because of her marrying within the time limit set by Judge Theophilus in the decree. If she denies that the decree is valid she is guilty of the bigamy laws of the state of Indiana, where she was married to Applass. The divorce is not a matter of record in the district court here, and the decree is not valid until the entry has been made on the books of the court. It has been said that when she asked her attorney, Louis E. Rodewig, within a year, he had replied in the negative. One day after receiving this legal advice she was married at Indianapolis. Walter Applass, speaking for Mrs. Loof, stated as long as the marriage was sanctioned outside of the state of Iowa it was in no violation of the laws of the state. He continued by saying that he knew nothing of the case, except what he had read in the newspapers. He intimated that the accused would probably plead guilty to contempt if the charge was preferred.
